In December 1995, the National School Reform Faculty convened its first Winter Meeting in Chicago, and what began as a small gathering for those early cohorts of newly trained CFG Coaches has become an annual source of renewal for hundreds, providing time to think and inquire, and space for courageous work to take root.

We know that sustained, focused conversations with one another are among the most essential elements of the work we do. So join us in Cambridge, Massachusetts to do the work you most need to do, with the people whose wisdom, perspective, and skill you most need. Reconnect with colleagues from your CFG Coaches Institute, from your Facilitative Leaders Seminar, or from past Winter Meetings. Meet the colleagues from around the country you don’t yet know you have.

We will work in the ways our CFGs do, and for two and a half days, we’ll use the tools and processes of our CFGs to deepen our skills, to press for insights, and to find courage in community. We’ll spend time in small groups, looking at student work, asking tough questions, and taking the time we need to do the work we need to do. Coaches Clinics will provide opportunities to learn from one another as we share what we know and what we still wonder.
