

Winter Meeting Wrap-Up

Sarah Childers, Indiana

The 13th Annual NSRF Winter Meeting was held January 14–17th, 2009, in Houston, Texas, and was attended by 300 people, including facilitators and critical friends.

For three-and-a-half days, teachers, administrators and educational leaders worked together on the issues that matter most to them. Many sought to improve their coaching skills and to learn more protocols. Others needed the vital feedback of peers on difficult dilemmas. Some were just getting started and needed to build strong foundations for bringing CFGs into their workplaces. Opportunities to meet all these needs and more were offered this past January in Houston.

Our post-event evaluations showed high levels of attendee satisfaction with the Winter Meeting experience. In fact, when asked if they agreed with the statement “Overall, I would rate this meeting as outstanding,” 93 percent of respondents answered “Agree” or “Strongly Agree,” resulting in an average score of 4.7 out of 5. When asked if they agreed with the statement “My home group became a place for professional interactions that embody the characteristics of a CFG,” 90 percent of respondents answered “Agree” or “Strongly Agree.” That question had our highest average score of any question, 4.8 out of 5.

The NSRF National Center and Winter Meeting planning team want to thank everyone who helped to make the 13th Annual NSRF Winter Meeting such a huge success. The participants, facilitators, critical friends, students and planning team all made this event happen. In particular, our gratitude goes out to colleagues in the Texas Centers of Activity: Houston A+ Challenge, Houston Independent School District and San Antonio. We hope to see you all next year! ■
