Administrators, what's on your mind?

For help with all these issues and more, attend the Critical Friends Group® Administrative Training

June 27-29, 2016 • San Francisco, CA • $600

Join fellow administrators from diverse environments to experience Critical Friends Group training at The Hamlin School in San Francisco in June. Discover the value of CFG® work in transforming school culture through the use of Critical Friends Group communities, a specific variety of Professional Learning Community (PLC).

In this hands-on training, administrators will learn to use specific protocols and activities developed by NSRF, designed to:

- Support school-wide collaboration
- Build and maintain trust
- Give and receive effective, actionable feedback
- Improve work
- Solve professional dilemmas
- Analyze data
- Brainstorm in innovative ways
- And more!
