The protocol issue

A collection of articles about NSRF protocol and activity use

As those of you know who’ve taken Critical Friends Group Coaches’ Training from NSRF in the last few years, we have been very busy fine-tuning our most-often used protocols and activities, as well as developing new ones and expanding our training materials and website protocol list accordingly. And we’re not done yet!

In this issue, as we all look toward summer vacation (for you, dear reader, we hope) and a full schedule of CFG Coaches’ and Administrators’ Trainings (for us at NSRF), we wanted to showcase some of our new materials and a few new ways to use some of our older ones. We hope you’ll get some great new ideas to try in all aspects of your professional life. Also, please let us know if you have other ways to use our protocols and activities that maybe we haven’t already tried. These tend to be very popular articles in NSRF Connections and perhaps you’d like a new byline for yourself? When we publish an article of yours, you will receive a year’s membership at your earned membership level — coaches, this is a great place for you to show your stuff and earn $75 worth of membership!

To those of you who we’ll see this summer in trainings or as interns toward becoming National Facilitators: thanks so much for giving us a part of your precious summer break!

To all of our friends: Our best regards from everyone at NSRF!
